Without knowing at what stage in the account set-up process she was at and what error message she received, it's hard for me to tell what is going on. I'd be happy to call her tomorrow morning around 9:30.

Hi Emily,

I spoke with Jamie Batchke from our subcontractor, CCKC. She entered Barb Patrick again in the ATA database with the correct email, which ends in .com. Barb received an email to login, but when she tried, it gave her an error message. I wasn't sure if it would still be easiest to talk with her or if there's anything else we need to do on the back end to make her account active. If you would prefer to talk to her and are available tomorrow between 9 and 10am, she is available. Her phone number is: 816-616-8166. If that time isn't good for you, I can check with her on another day and time.

Thanks for your help,

Kristen
